TEEN READING FIENDS

Tuesday, September 27th | 6:00–7:00PM Edinboro Branch Community Room

Is it only worth putting the book down if you get to talk about...the book you put down? Then come to the first meeting of the Teen Reading Fiends: an informal gathering of young book lovers, set up to facilitate 13–17 year olds getting to know each other and bonding over a shared love of good snacks and better books! For the first meeting, come and talk about the best book you read this year, choose new books, and collaborate in shaping the format and future of the Reading Fiends! To get us started, there will be a list of potential books to choose from for the next meeting.

Registration is recommended, but not required, for this free program. To register, call the library at 814-451-7081 or visit the events calendar at https://events.erielibrary.org/
