GENEALOGY FINDING AND USING HISTORICAL NEWSPAPERS

Tuesday, March 28
10am at Lincoln Library
7pm on ZOOM

Join local genealogist and learn about Finding and Using Historical Newspapers. Newspapers record not just basic details on your relatives, but also stories about their lives and information important to their communities. Learn how to search and what you can find. This session will help you understand digitized collections and locate free newspaper sources online.

PDF files for the class will be attached to the class description on erielibrary.org. the week before the class. You do not need to re-register to receive those files. Just click on the attachment.
