

Off the Shelf

Calling all bookworms! Are you ready to find your next reading obsession? Learn about books so good, they're practically flying off the library shelves. Each meeting will highlight a different genre or topic and feature themed games, activities, and snacks. All books will be available for checkout after the program.

Thursday, June 29th: Summer Reads

We'll talk about exciting summer reading picks, shake up some homemade ice cream, and tie dye a book tote.

Thursday, July 27th: Press Start

Trade the controller for a book (at least for a little while) and learn about some great reading suggestions for gamers. We'll make perler bead pixel art and play some hands-on games.

All meetings from 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Readers Ages 8-12
Registration Required*

*Sign up at events.erielibrary.org or call 814-451-6936. Registration opens two weeks ahead of each meeting.
